Dear Harold

I am sorry that, as a notoriously bad correspondent, my first letter to you in so long a time should be chiefly a form letter (attached). There is much for us to talk about, & I had hoped earlier to be in Washington this spring, but many things have kept me busy here.

One of them is this book project — a big anthology with about 50 items, covering JFK, MLK, RFK, & the political context of assassination. With so many authors we cannot offer full commercial rates, but hopefully will be able to come up with about half that. We should know soon, but have to come up with these sums in the next few days Town,
